Trentino Christmas and Annual Meeting

Evites have been sent, inviting you to attend our annual Trentino Christmas party/annual meeting. If you have not received yours, please let me know and we will send another. We do need to know as soon as possible if you plan to attend.

This year's annual meeting will be a very important one. Because of health issues suffered both by me and by my husband John, I need to step down as president. I plan to remain active in the club, but no longer feel able to do as much as I have done the past four years.

There is at least one person in the club who has indicated that they will consider running for president, provided there is enough support from the membership.

Please plan to be at the meeting to show your support for Seattle Trentino Club. You will have a fun time, a good meal, and the opportunity to play a significant part in the future of the club. We are lucky to have many talented and energetic members, but we have a somewhat unusual situation, in that our membership is spread over a large geographical area. If you are unable to attend, I invite you to send any comments or suggestions you may have regarding club activities or policies to me, joanbarker@mac.com

2014 ITTONA Convention in Utah

The 2014 ITTONA Convention will be held in Ogden, Utah, July 18 - 20. This is about as near to our area as it gets. I attended the presidents' meeting there this fall, and we previewed some of the venues for the convention. It promises to be a very special program, which runs the gamut from an outdoor Mass in the mountains to a rodeo. Their website is at <http://www.ogdentrentini.com>. They plan to post the details and be prepared for online registration by January 1, 2014.

2014 Dues are Due

Our club year runs from January through December and dues are due in January. Our dues enable us to rent venues for our events, to pay postage for mailings, and to cover other expenses. Dues are $25 per household. We very much appreciate your support for Seattle Trentino Club. If you haven't already done so, please send $25 to Seattle Trentino Club, c/o Joan Barker, 700 S 282nd Street #742, Des Moines, WA 98198.

If you have not been a member before, or if your information has changed, please complete the Application for Membership, otherwise the form is not necessary.
